Issue #3

You are an important part of your Local Union. Please come out and support your local union at the monthly meetings. Your voice is heard!

Website Up!

If you have been to the last few union meetings, you would have been aware that the previous website was going through a re-construction. The new layout provides a more up to date look and allows each member to pull up important information, such as the by – laws and the past newsletters. The website is still under construction, where a few pages are incomplete due to a few glitches in the coding process. However, the website plans to be “complete” in the near future; please be assured that the website will be updated as much as possible to help keep the membership informed. The website will come in handy in important events such as the one we all know about next year. Any ideas or suggestions that you would like to see added to the website can be directly related to the web administrator; email web_administrator@iue-cwa82162.org, or you can speak to Richard Shorter in department 179 (Test).

Union Discounts!

Did you know that CWA provides us with great discounts on services that may come in handy this summer? These discounts include car rentals, amusement park tickets, cell phone services, and many more! Visit <http://www.unionplus.org/union-member-benefits> to see all of the discounts and benefits!

In SOLIDARITY,

President
